INTERESTED IN HIGHBRIDGE

AMERICANS ABROAD HOPEFUL OF STEEPLE-CHASER'S CHANCES IN GRAND NATIONAL.

H. W. Smith, of Sportsmen's Dinner Fame, Making Up Party for the Race-American Trainer of Jumpers Thinks Horse Has Scant Chance.

New York, March 24.—Frank J. Bryan, seccetary of the Hunts Committee, has received a letter from Harry Worcester Smith, Master of the Westmeath Hunt, Ireland, and the Grafton Hunt, Massachusetts, stating that European sportsmen are much interested in the probable showing of the American steeplechaser Highbridge in the Grand National at Liverpool April 4.

Mr. Smith has just returned from Pay France.

interested in the probable showing of the American steeplechaser Highbridge in the Grand National at Liverpool April 4.

Mr. Smith has just returned from Pau, France, where he had a few days' good sport as a guest of F. H. Prince of Boston, the master there.

A party of Americans, including Mr. Prince's two sons, Norman and Frederick, will visit England for the Grand National and Mr. Smith himself is going over with Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Rochfort of Middleton Park, Westmeath, Mr. Rochfort is the owner of Kilhugh, winner of the Barbour Point to Point Cup at Punchestown last year. Mrs. Rochfort is a sister of Harry Usher, leading gentleman rider "between the flags" in the United Kingdom and also high in the list of successful trainers. In his stable he has four entries for the National and will ride Ballyhackle himself. "Atty" Fersse, who was third on the list of flat trainers last year, and who won the Two Thousand Guineas with Sweeper II., will also be one of the party. Mr. Persse has been hunting with Westmeath for the past elight weeks and going just as hard as he did fifteen years ago when at Brookline he piloted the Duke of Abercorn riding in the "cherry and white hoops," the popular colors of the late Robert Chamblet Hooper of Boston. Mr. Smith writes that he expects when hunting is over to run down for a short stay with Cecil Rochfort at Newmarket, where he is the Racing Manager for Sir Ernest Cassell. Thowl Pin, which is also thought of for the National, was schooled and trained last year by William Hally, the grand old gentleman rider of Tipperary. Although fifty-eight years old, Mr. Hanly won the Tipperary hounds last fall. It was on the latter's recommendation that Mr. Prince gave a big price for all rish thoroughbred hunter, the crack of Lanes Park, Thurles, Mr. Hanly's training establishment.

Mike Daly, the trainer and one-time jockey is of the opinion that Highbridge, the American jumper, which is being trained and pointed for the Grand National Steeplechase in England next week, has little or no chance to win the coveted fixture. He is quoted in the Washington Post as saying:

"I do not believe an American horse will win the big race this year. Highbridge, the racer upon which Americans are depending, was only of ordinary class in this country, and it requires the best type and stoutest hearted of horses to win over the trying Liverpool route, which is conceded to be the most difficult in the world. I have seen three Grand Nationals run, the first in the early '70s and the second in 1879, when Seaman took the race.

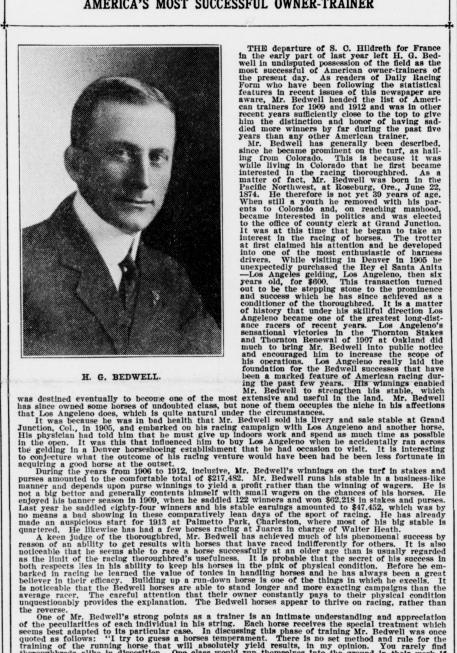

"The first of my Grand Nationals was won by Deliberator, a horse thirteen years old. Seaman was nine, I believe. There has been only one four-year-old to win the race since it was inaugurated. The long course and the stiff jumps require an older horse than a four-year-old, as a rule, though I know that here in America thoroughbreds are supposed to be at their best when four years old.

"While I have a high regard for the American thoroughbred, I have seen few that to my mind were suited for the big Liverpool race. I think, perhaps, the late Robert Neville's Mr. McCann came as near to being of Grand National calibre as any jumper I have seen in America. Good and Plenty, I think, was too poor a fencer."

imper I have seen in America. Good and Plenty, I think, was too poor a fencer."

Next week will bring about the decision of two highly important races in England, the Lincolnshire Handicap at a mile on the flat and the Liverpool Grand National Steeplechase. American interest will attach mainly to the great jumping race because of the American candidate Highbridge being sure to start, unless some accident happens him previous to the time of the race. Up to March 12, no decided favorite had been settled on for the Lincolnshire, Long Set, Uncle Pat and Cigar having all been well backed and standing level in the quotations at 10 to 1. Other horses supported moderately from time to time at longer prices were Le Touquet, Early Hope, Talaua Hill, Lavolt, Castleton, Lesto and Junior. By this time it is more than probable that others have been well backed. Betting on the Grand National was then practically limited to two horses, Rathnally at 5 to 1 and Coverteoat at 9 to 1. Both of these horses won figreat style at Hurst Park, Coverteoat on Friday, March 7, and Rathnally on Saturday, March 8, and seem to have temporarily at least, paralyzed betting on the other horses. Rathnally was favorite for the race last year, but fell. Following his Hurst Park race, London Sporting Life said of him: "By an exceedingly smooth performance in the Open Steeplechase at Hurst Park on Saturday, Rathnally to a great extent rehabilitated himself in the public estimation. It may be that he had little to do, for his stable companion, Bloodstone, was conceding ten pounds as compared with the two pounds separating them in the Grand National weights; Flaxseed had never been up against top-sawyers before, and had in consequence to be taken a good deal on trust; and Agnes M., useful though she had proved herself to be, could hardly be held to possess any pretensions of beating Rathnally—the real Rathnally—at level weights. What Mr. Oliver Jones' horse had to do, however, he did well. He looked well and jumped heautifully, while after Flaxseed had unquestionably provides the explanation. The Bedwell horses appear to thrive on racing, rather than the reverse.

One of Mr. Bedwell's strong points as a trainer is an intimate understanding and appreciation of the peculiarities of each individual in his string. Each horse receives the special treatment which seems best adapted to its particular case. In discussing this phase of training Mr. Bedwell was once quoted as follows: "I try to guess a horses temperament. There is no set method and rule for the training of the running horse that will absolutely yield results, in my opinion. You rarely find thoroughbreds alike in disposition. One class would run themselves into the ground in their work if permitted to do so. Others sulk and refuse to work. I try different styles of training a horse until I hit on the one that produces the best results and then stick to that. There is a great deal more to the task of training race horses than simply letting the horse do a bit of galloping in the mornings. Close study of a horse's peculiarities is essential to success."

Besides being so skillful in the handling of horses, Mr. Bedwell is a good business man. He personally attends to practically all the details of the running of his big stable. He is a good judge of jockeys and has developed several good ones, including Taplin, who was at his best when under contract to the Bedwell stable. Aside from the pleasure that he derives from the successful training of his horses Mr. Bedwell's chief enjoyment is automobiling. He is a daring and expert driver and takes keen delight in piloting a high-speed car.

most encouraging to his admirers; yet he has falled so far to compete the Grand National jouney, and a blunder such as the one he made near home at the Esher meeting would have been absolutely fatal at Liverpool. With Rathnally the case is certainly different, for we do know that he can jump the Alntree obstacles and that he was a most unlucky animal not to be returned the winner in Glenside's year.

animal not to be returned the winner in Glenside's year.

"It is just possible that Rathnally would not have had matters so entirely his own way at the finish had Flaxseed kept his legs, for the Findon horse stuck well to him right up to the moment of his mishap. Bloodstone came to grief at the water the second time round, but for some distance had not been jumping at all well, and so one was prepared for what happened in his case. As for Agnes M., her performance was a distinctly meritorious one. Apparently outclassed, she yet contrived to come through the ordeal better than either Bloodstone or Flaxseed, while it was no disgrace to be beaten so easily by Rathnally in the run-in, after she had nearly caught him up between the last two fences. Wherever the company is anything short of the highest class, this mare will always need a great deal of beating."

RHODA B.'S LAST FOAL DIES.

RHODA B.'S LAST FOAL DIES.

The foal by Santol out of Rhoda B. did not long survive after the death of her dam, and Mr. Croker, by the death of the mother of Orby, Rhodora, and all the other winners out of her, has lost the most distinguished dam in the Glencairn Stud. Her progeny won twenty-two races, worth $101,009, and the best winners out of her have just been named, for the only other of her stock to capture over $5,000 in stake money is Clonbern, which is now a five-year-old, and is included in the string which James Allen trains at the County Dublin establishment, Jennico, Alabama and Emperor Napoleon between them have won less than $5,000, but Rhododendron was a speedy filly. As a two-year-old she ran in selling company, in which she was quite smart, but during her second season she performed in better class and scored three successes.

Rhoda B. was a long way the best of all the American-bred broodmares that have been imported into England or Ireland. The only other one which is dam of a classic winner is Mrs. Kendal, by Tenny—Star Actress, and dam of Atmah, winner of the One Thousand Guineas. The now two-year-old out of Rhoda B. is known as Barnacullia and is a sister to Clonbern. Evidently something high is thought of Clonmell's daughter, for she has been fairly liberally engaged in England and Ireland. Rhoda B.'s daughters, Rhodora and Rhododendron, are included in the Glencairn Stud, where Orby is lord of the harem.

NEW CANADIAN REGULATIONS.

Toronto, Ont., March 24.—On the first of April there will come into force new regulations governing the free entry to Canada of animals for the improvement of stock. One of the following amended regulations adopted by order in Council for the guidance of importers and Custom House officers, 8385.

"No animal imported for the improvement of stock shall be admitted free of duty unless the owner is a British subject, resident in the British Empire, or if more than one owner, each is a British subject, resident in the British Empire and there is furnished an import certificate stating that the animal is recorded in a Canadian National Record or in a Foreign Record recognized as reliable by the National Record Committee.

"A statutory declaration by the owner or one of the owners, that he is a British subject, or that each is a British subject resident in the British Empire, and that such animal is the identical animal described in such certificate, must be provided, and that such animal is being imported into Canada for the improvement of stock."

MORE MONEY AT WINDSOR

STAKE VALUES SUBSTANTIALLY INCREASED AT CANADIAN COURSE FOR COMING SEASON.

Frontier Handicap to Be a $3,500 Event, as Against $3,000 Last Season-Increase Is General, All Stakes Being Affected.

Detroit, Mich., March 24.—That the values of all the Windsor stakes will be increased this year will be welcome news to horsemen who plan to campaign their charges at the two summer meetings to be held at the track across the river. According to the Windsor Jockey Club's stake prospectus, which has just been issued, the Frontier Handicap, run on the opening day of the first meeting. Saturday, July 16, will be a $3,500 event. Last year the value of this fixtute was $3,000 and the year before it was worth $2,500. The Frontier, as usual, will be for three-year-olds and upward and weights will appear four days before the race. This event has attracted many of the best horses on the American turf in past years and with the increased value this year there is no doubt but what the quality of the entries will be as notable as ever.

The D. & C. and Pontchartrain Selling Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward; the Edenwold, for two-year-olds and the Detroit, also for two-year-olds to be run during the first meeting, each has been increased in value from $1,200 to $1,500. In addition to the cash value a handsome piece of silver plate goes to the winner of the Edenwold Stakes, as a trophy presented by Walter O. Parmer. The distance of the Edenwold is five furlongs, while the Detroit Stakes is half a furlong greater. Starters in the D. & C. will travel the mile route, while the Pontchartrain is for sprinters over the six-furlong distance.

The Detroit, Belle Isle & Windsor Ferry Company the states in the party of the starter of the party of th the D. & C. will travel the mile route, while the Pontchartrain is for sprinters over the six-furlongs distance.

The Detroit, Belle Isle & Windsor Ferry Company Handicap will be worth $2,500 this year, an increase of $500 over the value of the stake in 1912. This will attract, as usual, a good class of handicap performers with a fondness for the mile and a sixteenth route. It will be run during the second meeting, August 16 to 23, inclusive. All of the other fixtures for the second meeting have been increased from $1,200 to $1,500. This increase applies to the Windsor Stakes, one mile; the St. Clair Handicap, three-quarters of a mile; the Essex Handicap, three-quarters of a mile; the Essex Handicap, one mile.

The Windsor Jockey Club's first meeting comes sixth on the Canadian list this summer. It will follow Fort Erie. Then a month will elapse before the second meeting, also following Fort Erie.

The plans of the management call for the distribution of some $68,000 during the two meetings.

NEW YORK TRACKS IN GOOD CONDITION.

New York, March 24.—The Belmont Park track is in much better condition than one would suppose after nearly three years of idleness. The grandstand and field stands, the clubhouse and the executive building are in excellent shape. All the structures are built of steel and stone and have been practically impervious to the attacks of storms. It will not even be necessary to paint them. Lawns, walks and roads are in good condition, ready for a slight grooming by rakes and brooms to gather up the surface accumulations of dust, dirt and leaves. All the seats, benches and chairs are on hand stowed away ready to be carted from their storage place on the grounds to the grandstand, clubhouse and lawns. It will not be necessary to buy a single thing to provide for the comfort of the prospective racegoers.

It has been written that the various tracks bere-and lawns. It will not be necessary to buy a single thing to provide for the comfort of the prospective racegoers.

It has been written that the various tracks hereabouts were mere ribbons of dirt, without fence, rails or posts to mark off the various courses. Inspection failed to reveal any such condition. All the rails and posts are in place and each track is as distinct as it was the last day the horses raced. When racing was discontinued and the aviators with their canvas birds of the air took possession of Belmont Park the jumps of the steeplechase were razed. These were the only things touched. The jumps, ten in all, will have to be rebuilt. About 140 horses stabled at the track all winter are now being exercised. R. T. Wilson, president of the Saratoga Association for the improvement of the order of the first of the steeple of the first of the saratoga Association for the improvement of the order of the saratoga Association for the improvement of the order of the saratoga Association for the saratoga Association for the laprovement of the Breed of Horses, owns the biggest string of the order of the first of the saratoga Association for the saratoga Association for the laprovement of the Breed of Horses, owns the biggest string of the order of the few wealthy men who remained faithful to the American turf by refusing to send horses to England and France to race during the last three years, kept in his employ all winter eighteen stable men and boys.

MARLBORO PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED.

Baltimore, Md., March 24.—The program for the first four days of the coming meeting at Marlboro has been announced by the Southern Maryland Fair and Racing Association. There are to be six races each day and no purse will be less than $300, with handleaps of $400.

The initial day's sport on April 2 will be marked by the running of the District Handicap for three-year-olds and upward at a mile and a sixteenth. On the second day the Rennert Hotel Steeplechase is offered. It is for four-year-olds and upward over the short course. On the fourth day there will be two special attractions—the Emerson Hotel Handicap for three-year-olds, at one mile and twenty yards, and the Belvedere Hotel Steeplechase, for four-year-olds and upward, over the Columbia Course. There is a movement on foot to change the dates of the Mariboro meeting, but it probably will not succeed. The Maryland track management has been asked to change its dates from April to June I to 10, so as not to conflict with the meeting of the Jamestown track in Virginia. This request was made by Bob Levy, manager of the Norfolk meeting, with the approval of the Jockey Club.

TWO CHARLESTON FAVORITES WIN

Feature Race Marked by Rough Riding and Two

Charleston, S. C., March 24.—Pandorina and Dr. Duenner, the former carrying the colors of Mrs. L. A. Livingston, were the only pronounced favorites to score this afternoon at Falmetto Park. Dr. Duenner won the feature race in spite of being subjected to repeated interference, for which Snider, on Armor, was to blame. The offending rider was suspended by the stewards for the remainder of the meeting and Buxton, who had the mount on Volthorpe, was fined $50 by the officials for intemperate language. Buxton was involved in the rough riding and caused some interference to Dr. Duenner on the stretch turn. Skirvin included him in his scope of complaint and Buxton is said to have threatened him.

W. M. Murray announced this afternoon his appointment as starter for the Marlboro meeting which is to begin April 2. Secretary Hart Dermann expects to ship from here about eight carloads of horses numbering about 100 in the aggregate and expects about fifty additional racers from the vicinity of Marlboro to furnish available racing material to conduct the meeting.

Talecarrier, one of the candidates for the Palmetto Derby, to be run on Saturday next, the closing day of the meeting, was worked a mile this morning in 1:424%. He was ridden by Clement and had about 120 pounds up. Monocacy, another Derby eligible, was worked out seven furlongs in the third race and went the distance in 1:32.

as a result of his sojourn at Mineral Wells, Texas, has returned to his home in Louisville.
Hal Stevens, caterer at the Juarez track, has contracted with W. W. Finn to take charge of the catering at Minoru Park at Vancouver, B. C., during the meeting beginning June 28.

The new track of the Connaught Park Jockey Club at Ottawa will unquestionably be in readiness for the opening in June. Much enthusiasm is being manifested by the people of Ottawa over the new venture.

Richard T. Wilson, president of the Saratoga Association, will return to New York from his winter home at Palmetto Bluff, S. C., this week. It is probable that with him back in New York there will be further conferences on the racing plans in that state.

N. K. Beal has leased the racing qualities of O Em and Tactics from J. Lundendorf; C. T. Patterson has leased the racing qualities of the two-year-old Star and Stripes from J. Lundendorf, and John Whalen has leased the racing qualities of Buskin and Maxim's Choice from Clarence H. Robbins, all for the season of 1913.

bins, all for the season of 1913.

The Prix du President de La Republique, a steeplechase handicap at two miles, six and one-half furlongs, was won at the Auteuli track in France Sunday by M. Gouveille's brown filly Sybilla. Sansovino finished second, with Make Haste II. third and Frank J. Gould's Conte la Belle fourth. The stake was valued at $12,600 with a trophy added.

W. R. Norvell, who passed through a severe sickness at Juarez early in the winter, has returned to his home in Chicago after extended sojourns at Hot Springs and West Baden. He has completely recovered his health and will go to Norfolk in a few days for the Jamestown Jockey Club's meeting. He will serve as racing secretary at the Dufferin Park and Hillcrest meetings during the coming summer.

wesley Fields, a well known turfman and trainer of thoroughbred horses, who died at Lexington last week after a protracted illness, was a native of Ohio. He went to Lexington about twenty years ago and soon became interested in race horses, and for a number of years was a successful trainer, owning many of the horses which he raced. Among the well known horses which he developed were Whyota, Mertie Reed, Lem Reed and El Toro.

Mertic Reed, Lem Reed and El Toro.

Horsemen who knew him well regret to hear of the death of Rev. Father Denis Michael McCormick, pastor of St. Joseph's Church in Baltimore. Father McCormick was a familiar figure on the lawns of Pimlico during the race meetings of the Maryland Jockey Club and was friend and confessor of racing men for many years. An ardent lover of the thoroughbred horse, he seldom missed a racing day at the course and was as interested in the deeds of th horses as any patron of the sport. Father McCormick was born in Washington, D. C., where the funeral services were held and many of the horsemen quartered at the Benning track attended the obsequies.

ANDREW MILLER'S RETURN TO RACING.

Another pleasing sign of the times is that Andrex Miller, secretary of the Saratoga Association for the Improvement of the Breed of Horses, is to buy a string of thoroughbreds this season and actively return to racing. It is not thought likely that Mr. Miller would buy horses to campaign except in New York State and it is taken as an indication that the plans for a resumption of the sport are well welfared at this time, though no announcement has been made of just how far the associations have progressed in that direction. Some seasons back Mr. Miller and his associates of the Newcastle Stable cut a very important figure on the American turf and his return to active participation as an owner is of vast importance.

Before the formation of the Newcastle Stable, in which F. C. Bishop, Blair Painter and Thomas Welsh were partners with Mr. Miller, he raced horses under his own name and the stable was at the crest wave of its success and an immense string of thoroughbreds were raced over the New York courses. Walter Miller, at the time the foremost rider in the country, was under contract and Welsh did the training. That year, among others that were campaigned were McCarter, the best son of Knight of the Thistie: Running Water, L. Core, Big Chief, Momentum, The Squire, Inquisitor. Spooner, Paul Pry, Inauguration, Carrollton, Bull's Eye, Cosmopolitan, Explosion, Running Account, Saracinesca and several others that are well known to racing.

In his earlier career as an owner Mr. Miller raced Incantation and Coy Maid, a remarkable pair of fillies. Then later, and while the Newcastle Stable was still a power on the turf. Royal Captive, The Pippin and Wise Mason bore its silks with credit. Mr. Miller and his associates of the Newcastle Stable had its final disbandment and sale, in the paddock of the Saratoga course in the fall of 1910, Bashti, then a two-year-old, was sold at auction to Harry Payne Whitney of $30,000, the highest price ever paid for a two-year-old, was sold at auction to tharry Payne Whitney of $30,000,

The Juarez course was not in such fast condition this season as during previous meetings and the result was that there was no reduction of the track records. The record for seven-eighths was twice equaled during the meeting. Otherwise the records remained unchanged and are as follows:

OPERATION OF THE MILLER LAW.

Whether or not the passing and enforcing of the Miller law in Canada, relative to horse racing, together with its other sundry restrictions, has been in the best interests of the sport, has been a subject for much discussion. The arguments, both prond con, are many and varied, consequently H. H. Miller and his bill have been a target for the 'knockers' on either side.

Promoters of race meetings throughout the Dominion found the limitation of the number of racing days a bitter pill to swallow. The horsemen felt the effect of the measure to a greater extent, and then came a solution of the problem. With the addition of a couple of new tracks enough days of racing can now be given to cope with the demands of the owners and warrant them in continuing their stables at the great expense.

Each winter season the "space writers" organize a number of new racing associations throughout the country, and new tracks are to be built that never materialize. A howl is then raised by the "antis" that we are having more racing than ever before, under the Miller law, which is absolutely wrong.

Previous to the passing of this bill continuous racing prevailed on the five Canadian circuit mile tracks collectively, comprising Toronto, Montreal, Hamilton, Windsor and Fort Erie, from about May 20 until the middle of October, annually, the actual number of racing days totaling about 125. On these same tracks last year only seventy days' racing was given, and with Ottawa included this year the number will be increased to only eighty-four days.

The half-mile courses also ran wild at that time, and on which there was practically as much racing as on the mile tracks. Meetings of thirty days' duration were common both here and at Montreal, while other points in the east provided the scene of action on various occasions. With the number of half-mile tracks in commission last year there was less racing than on the "milers," or sixty-seven days in all, a vast difference from the olden days.

The shake-up has had a good effect, however. The m
